CHAPTER II

GENERAL PROVISIONS REGARDING TENANCIES.

Application of Chapter V of Transfer of Properties Act. 3. The provisions of Chapter V of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, shall, in so far as they are, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to the tenancies and leases of land to which this Act applies. IV of 1882.

Persons to be deemed tenants. 4. <sup>1</sup>[I] A person lawfully cultivating any land belonging to another person shall be deemed to be a tenant if such land is not cultivated personally by the owner and if such person is not—

(a) a member of the owner's family, or

(b) a servant on wages payable in cash or kind but not in crop share or a hired labourer cultivating the land under the personal supervision of the owner or any member of the owner's family, or

(c) a mortgagee in possession.

Explanation <sup>2</sup>[(I)].—A person shall not be deemed to be a tenant under this section if such person has been on an application made by the owner of the land as provided under section 2-A of the Bombay Tenancy Act, 1939, declared by a competent authority not to be a tenant. Bom. XXIX of 1939.

<sup>2</sup>[Explanation II.—Where any land is cultivated by a widow or a minor or a person who is subject to physical or mental disability or a serving member of the armed forces through a tenant then notwithstanding anything contained in Explanation I to clause (6) of section 2, such tenant shall be deemed to be a tenant within the meaning of this section.]

<sup>3</sup>[(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any land in the Ratnagiri and Sindhudurg districts is being cultivated by a person (other than the person who according to the Records of Rights, has right to cultivate), for not less than 12 years, such person shall be deemed to be a tenant for the purposes of this section if there is circumstantial evidence that he has been uninterruptedly cultivating the land personally, and <sup>4</sup>[the Sarpanch or Police Patil or the Chairman of Vividh Karyakari Sahakari Society, and the cultivator of the adjoining land state on affidavit that, the said land is in the possession of, and is being cultivated by, such person, uninterruptedly for not less than 12 years.]

Explanation I.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expression “land” includes the “warkas land”.

<sup>2</sup> The existing Explanation was renumbered as Explanation I and Explanation II was inserted by Bom. 38 of 1957, s. 3.

<sup>4</sup> This portion was substituted for the portion beginning with the words “The Sarpanch, Police Patil” and the ending with the words “the land is situated”, by Mah. 5 of 2006, s.2.

Explanation II.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expression “circumstantial evidence” includes extract of voters list, ration card, electricity bill or house assessment receipt from the same village or any receipt in respect of sale of agricultural produce or any document regarding permission of felling of trees or excavation of minor mineral or any such permission granted with respect to such land.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (a) of clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of section 32H, the purchase price in such cases shall be 200 times the assessment.]

<sup>1</sup>[4A. For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be recognized to be a protected tenant, if such person has been deemed to be a protected tenant under sections 3, 3A and 4 of the Bombay Tenancy Act, 1939, referred to in Schedule I to this Act.

Protected tenants.

XLI of 1966.

4B. No tenancy of any land <sup>2</sup>[other than the tenancy of the land duly sanctioned under section 36 or section 36A of the Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966] shall be terminated merely on the ground that the period fixed by agreement or usage for its duration has expired.]

Tenancy not to be terminated by efflux of time.

<sup>3</sup>[5. (1) For the purposes of this Act, the ceiling area of lands shall be,—

Ceiling area.

(a) 48 acres of jirayat land, or

(b) 24 acres of seasonally irrigated land or paddy or rice land, or

(c) 12 acres of perennially irrigated land.

(2) Where the land held by a person consists of two or more kinds of land specified in sub-section (1), the ceiling area of such holding shall be determined on the basis of one acre of perennially irrigated land being equal to two acres of seasonally irrigated land or paddy or rice land, or four acres of jirayat land.

6. (1) For the purposes of this Act, an economic holding shall be,—

Economic holding.

(a) 16 acres of jirayat land, or

(b) 8 acres of seasonally irrigated land, or paddy or rice land, or

(c) 4 acres of perennially irrigated land.

(2) Where the land held by a person consists of two or more kinds of land specified in sub-section (1), an economic holding shall be determined on the basis applicable to the ceiling area under sub-section (2) of section 5.

Irrigated
land.

6A. For the purposes of this Act,—

(a) irrigated land, whether perennially or seasonally irrigated, shall not include land irrigated by sources other than canals or bundharas within the meaning of *the Bombay Irrigation Act, 1879, or any lift irrigation system constructed or maintained by the State Government ;

Bom.
VII of 1879.

(b) seasonally irrigated land shall include alluvial land and land situated in the bed of a river and seasonally flooded by the water of such river.

Power of Government to vary ceiling area
and economic holding.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 5 and 6, it shall be lawful for the State Government, if it is satisfied that it is expedient so to do in the public interest, to vary, by notification in the Official Gazette, the acreage of the ceiling area or economic holding, or the basis of determination of such ceiling area or economic holding under sub-section (2) of section 5 regard being had to—

- (a) the situation of the land,
- (b) its productive capacity,
- (c) the fact that the land is located in a backward area, and
- (d) any other factors which may be prescribed.

Rent and its maximum and minimum.

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act,—

(a) but notwithstanding any law, custom, usage, agreement or the decree or order of a court, the rent payable shall be paid annually, and in cash ;

(b) such rent shall not exceed five times the assessment payable in respect of the land or twenty rupees per acre, whichever is less, and shall not be less than twice such assessment:

Provided that where the amount equal to twice the assessment exceeds the sum of twenty rupees per acre, the rent shall be twice the assessment.

(2) For the purpose of this section “ assessment ” means,—

(i) in areas in which a settlement has been made under Chapter VIII-A of the *Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879, or in which the assessment has been fixed under section 52 of the said Code, the assessment so settled or fixed;

Bom.
V of 1879.

(ii) in areas to which rule 19N of the Land Revenue Rules, 1921 applies, such assessment as may be leviable under that rule;

(iii) in areas to which the **Bombay Merged Territories and Areas (Jagirs Abolition) Act, 1953, applies the assessment fixed under section 7 of that Act;

Bom.
of 1954.

(iv) in areas in which the assessment is payable in crop share or produce, such assessment as may be fixed by the State Government in accordance with the principles laid down in rule 19-0 of the Land Revenue Rules, 1921.

* See now the Maharashtra Irrigation Act, 1976 (Mah. XXXVIII of 1976).

** The short title of the Act has been amended as “the Maharashtra Merged Territories and Areas (Jagirs Abolition) Act” (XXXIX of 1954) by Mah. 24 of 2012, Section 2 & 3, Schedule, entry 54, w.e.f. 1st May 1960.

(3) If by custom, usage, agreement or the decree or order of a court, the amount of rent payable is less than the maximum or minimum specified in sub-section (1), the amount so payable shall be the rent in respect of the land.

Explanation.—In respect of any land which is partially or wholly exempt from the payment of land revenue, the full amount of assessment leviable in respect of such land shall be deemed to be the assessment in respect thereof for the purpose of sub-section (1), as if the land was not exempt from the payment of land revenue either partially or wholly.

9. (1) Subject to the maximum and minimum limits of rent fixed under section 8, the Mamlatdar shall for each village, or group of villages, or for any area in such village or group, within his jurisdiction, fix the rate of rent payable by a tenant for the lease of different classes of land situate in such village or group of villages, or areas as the case may be :

Rate of rent payable by tenant to his landlord.

<sup>1</sup>[Provided that this sub-section shall not apply to rent payable in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 8 where it is lower than the rent at the rate fixed by the Mamlatdar under this section.]

(2) In arriving at such rate the Mamlatdar shall have regard to the rents prevalent in the locality, the productivity of the lands, the prices of commodities and such other factors as may be prescribed.

(3) The rate of rent so fixed shall continue for a period of five years and shall be liable to be revised by the Mamlatdar thereafter at the end of each successive period of five years :

Provided that the rate of rent so fixed, if not revised at the end of any such period, shall continue until it is so revised.

(4) The rent payable by a tenant to his landlord in respect of any land in a village, or group of villages, or areas, shall be at the rate fixed under sub-section (1):

Provided that the Mamlatdar or the Collector subject to the provisions of section 8, may at any time during any such period of five years, on an application made to him in this behalf,—

(i) reduce the rent, if he is satisfied that on account of the deterioration of the land by flood, or other cause beyond the control of the tenant the land has been wholly or partially rendered unfit for cultivation, or

(ii) enhance the rent, if he is satisfied that on account of any improvement made in the land, at the expenses of the landlord, there has been an increase in the agricultural produce thereof.

Quantum of rent payable by tenant to landlord.

9A. (1) The rent payable by a tenant shall, subject to the maximum and minimum fixed under section 8, be the rent at the rate fixed under section 9 in respect of the class of land to which the land held by the tenant belongs <sup>1</sup>[or where rent payable under the operation of sub-section (3) of section 8 is lower than the rent at the rate fixed under section 9, such lower rent] :

<sup>2</sup>[Provided that, where any land held by a tenant is wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue and the rent payable in respect of such land is at the rate fixed under section 9, then the amount of rent shall be increased by a sum equal to the aggregate of the following amounts, that is to say,—

(i) the amount of full assessment leviable in respect of such land,

(ii) the amounts of the cesses mentioned in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10A, levied or leviable in respect of such land under the relevant law, and the tenant shall be liable to pay rent as so increased :

Provided futher that, if the amount of rent as so increased payable by the tenant for any year exceeds the value of one-sixth of the produce of the land in that year, the tenant shall be entitled to deduct from the rent for that year the amount so in excess, and the quantum of rent payable by the tenant to his landlord for that year shall be deemed to have been reduced to the extent of such deduction.]

(2) If there is a dispute regarding the class to which any land belongs either of the parties to the dispute may apply to the Mamlatdar who shall after making an inquiry, decide the dispute.

Landlord not liable to make contribution towards cost of cultivation.

9B. Notwithstanding any law, usage or agreement or the decree or order of a court in the case of land in respect of which the rent has been fixed under section 9, a landlord shall not be liable to make any contribution towards the cultivation of the land, in the possession of his tenant.

Liability of tenant to payment until rent is fixed under preceding sections.

9C. Until the rent is fixed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections, a tenant shall, subject to the maximum provided under section 8, be liable to pay to the landlord the rent at the rate at which it was payable immediately before the commencement of the amending Act, 1955, and if such rent was payable in crop share or produce, either partly or wholly, the value of such crop share or produce shall be determined in the prescribed manner.

10. If any landlord recovers rent from, any tenant in contravention of the provisions of sections <sup>1</sup>[8, 9, 9A or 9C], he shall forthwith refund the excess amount recovered to the tenant and shall be liable to pay such compensation to the tenant as may be determined by the Mamlatdar in this behalf and shall also be liable to such penalty as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

Refund of rent recovered in contravention of the provisions of the Act and other penalties.

<sup>2</sup>[10A. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), every tenant shall be liable to pay in respect of the land held by him as a tenant,—

Termination of Tenancy by surrender thereof. <sup>1</sup>[15. (1) A tenant may terminate the tenancy in respect of any land at any time by surrendering his interest therein in favour of the landlords :

Provided that such surrender shall be in writing and verified before the Mamlatdar in the prescribed manner.

(2) Where a tenant surrenders his tenancy, the landlord shall be entitled to retain the land so surrendered for the like purposes, and to the like extent, and in so far as the conditions are applicable subject to the like conditions as are provided in sections 31 and 31A for the termination of tenancies.

<sup>2</sup>[(2A) The Mamlatdar shall, in respect of the surrender verified under sub-section (1), hold an inquiry and decide whether the landlord is entitled under sub-section (2) to retain the whole or any portion of the land so surrendered and specify the extent and particulars in that behalf].

(3) The land, or any portion thereof, which the landlord is not entitled to retain under sub-section (2), shall be liable to be disposed of in the manner provided under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 32-P ].

Bar to eviction from dwelling houses. 16. (1) If in any village, a tenant is in occupation of a dwelling house built at the expense of such tenant; or his predecessor-in-title on a site belonging to his landlord, such tenant shall not be evicted from such dwelling house (with the materials and the site thereof and the land immediately appurtenant thereto and necessary for its enjoyment) unless—

(a) the landlord proves that the dwelling house was not built at the expense of such tenant or his predecessor-in-title ; and

(b) such tenant makes <sup>3</sup>[ any three defaults] in the payment of rent, if any, which he has been paying for the use and occupation of such site.

17. (1) If a landlord to whom the site referred to in section 16 belongs intends to sell such site, the tenant at the expense of whom or whose predecessor-in-title, a dwelling house is built thereon shall be given in the manner provided in sub-section (2) the first option of purchasing the site at a value determined by the Tribunal.

Tenant to be given first option of purchasing site on which he has built a dwelling house.

(2) The landlord intending to sell such site shall give notice in writing to the tenant requiring him to state within three months from the date of service of such notice whether he is willing to purchase the site.

(3) If within the period of three months so specified the tenant intimates in writing to the landlord that he is willing to purchase the site, the landlord shall make an application to the Tribunal for the determination of the value of the site. On receipt of such application the Tribunal after giving notice to the tenant and after holding an inquiry shall determine the value of the site <sup>1</sup>[ which shall not exceed 20 times the annual rent thereof]. The Tribunal may, by an order in writing require the tenant to deposit the amount of value of such site <sup>2</sup>[ within one year ]from the date of such order. On the deposit of such amount the site shall be deemed to have been transferred to the tenant and the amount deposited shall be paid to the landlord. The Tribunal shall on payment of the prescribed fees grant a certificate in the prescribed form to such tenant specifying therein the site so transferred and the name of such tenant.

(4) If the tenant fails to intimate his willingness to purchase the site within the time specified in sub-section (2) or fails to deposit the amount of the value within the time specified in sub-section (3), the tenant shall be deemed to have relinquished his right of first option to purchase the site and the landlord shall then be entitled to evict the tenant either on payment of such compensation for the value of the structure of such dwelling house as may be determined by the Tribunal or allow the tenant at his option to remove the material of the structure.

(5) Any sale of a site held in contravention of this section shall be null and void.

Tenant to be deemed to have purchased sites referred to in section 16 from specified date.

17B. (1) After the commencement of the Amending Act, 1955, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct a record of rights relating to the sites and the houses thereon in villages to be made in the manner prescribed.

(2) On the completion of such record of rights, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify a date on which the tenants referred to in section 16 whose names are entered in such record or their successors-in-title shall be deemed to have purchased the site of such dwelling house free from encumbrances at the price to be fixed by the Tribunal, being a price not exceeding 20 times the annual rent for the site.

(3) As soon as may be thereafter, the Tribunal shall publish or cause to be published a notice in such village within its jurisdiction in which all such sites are situate and shall, as far as practicable, issue notice to each such landlord and tenant and to any other person interested in such site to appear before it on the date specified in the notice. The notice published in a village shall be affixed in the Chavdi or at such public place as the Tribunal may direct.

(4) The Tribunal shall, after giving an opportunity to such landlord, tenant and other person interested to be heard and after holding an inquiry, determine the price of the site.

(5) On the determination of the price of the site under sub-section (4), the tenant shall deposit the amount of such price with the Tribunal—

(a) either in lump sum within one year from such date, or

(b) in such instalments not exceeding three with simple interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum, and at such intervals during the period not exceeding three years and on or before such dates, as may be fixed by the Tribunal and the Tribunal shall direct that the amount deposited in lump sum or the amount of the instalments deposited at each interval shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of section 32Q so far as they are applicable.

(6) On the deposit of the amount of the price in lump sum or of the last instalment of such price, the Tribunal shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, grant a certificate in the prescribed form, to the tenant declaring him to be the purchaser of the site. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the sale.

(7) If the tenant fails to pay any instalment on or before the date fixed by the Tribunal under sub-section (5), the amount of such instalment and the interest thereon shall be recovered as an arrears of land revenue.

(8) If after holding an inquiry under sub-section (4), the Tribunal is satisfied that, the tenant is not willing to purchase the site, the Tribunal shall issue a certificate to the landlord to that effect. On the issue of such certificate the landlord shall be entitled to evict the tenant and dispose of the site in such manner as he may think fit, either on payment of such compensation for the value of the structure of such dwelling house as may be determined by the Tribunal, or after allowing the tenant, at his option, to remove the materials of the structure.]

<sup>1</sup>18. The provisions of sections 16, 17, 17A and 17B shall apply— Dwelling houses of agricultural labourers, etc.

(a) to the dwelling houses and sites thereof occupied by agricultural labourers and artisans in any village ; and

(b) to the lands held on lease in any village by persons carrying on an allied pursuit for the purpose of such pursuit.]

19. If a tenant has planted or plants any trees on any land leased to him, he shall be entitled to the produce and the wood of such trees during the continuance of his tenancy and shall on the termination of his tenancy be entitled to such compensation for the said trees as may be determined by the Mamlatdar: Tenant's right to trees planted by him.

Provided that a tenant shall not be entitled to compensation under this section if the tenancy is terminated by surrender on the part of the tenant:

Provided further that the landlord shall during the continuance of the tenancy be entitled to the rent of the land as if the trees had not been planted.

20. (1) A tenant shall during the continuance of his tenancy be entitled to two-thirds of the total produce of trees naturally growing on the land, the landlord being entitled to one-third of the produce of such trees. Right to produce of naturally growing trees.

(2) If there is any dispute regarding the right to the produce of such trees or the apportionment of such produce as provided under sub-section (1) the tenant or the landlord may apply to the Mamlatdar. Such application shall be made in such form as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of such application, the Mamlatdar shall, after holding an inquiry, pass such order thereon as he deems fit.

Repairs of
bunds.

23. (1) Notwithstanding any agreement, usage or custom to the contrary, if it appears to the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government that the construction, maintenance or repairs of any bunds protecting any land held by a tenant is neglected due to a dispute between the landlord and the tenant or for any other reason, it may by an order in writing direct that the construction, maintenance or repairs shall be carried out by such persons as may be specified in the order and the cost thereof shall be recoverable from the person in actual possession of the land as arrears of land revenue.

(2) The person from whom the costs are recovered under sub-section (1) shall be entitled to recover the same or any part thereof from any person who under any agreement, usage or custom is wholly or partially liable to construct, maintain or repair the bunds.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the tenant of any land, the protective bunds of which are neglected, to construct, maintain or repair such bunds at his costs and the costs so incurred by him shall on application made by him to the Mamlatdar be recoverable by him from the landlord according to his liability under the agreement, usage or custom. The costs of the proceedings of the tenant's application shall also be recoverable from the landlord in case the landlord is held wholly or partially liable to pay the cost incurred by the tenant for construction, maintenance or repairs to the bunds.

against termination of tenancy in certian cases.

24. Where any tenancy of any land held by any tenant is terminated on the ground that the tenant has done any act which is destructive or permanently injurious to the land, no proceeding for ejection against such tenant shall lie unless and until the landlord has served on the tenant a notice in writing specifying the act of destruction or injury complained of and the tenant fails within a period of one year from the service of notice to restore the land to the condition in which it was before such destruction or injury.

CHAPTER III

(I) Termination of tenancy for personal cultivation and non-agricultural use.

<sup>2</sup>[31. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 14 and 30 but subject to sections 31A to 31D (both inclusive), a <sup>3</sup>[landlord (not being a landlord within the meaning of Chapter III-AA) may], after giving notice and making an application for possession as provided in sub-section (2), terminate the tenancy of any land (except a permanent tenancy), if the landlord bona-fide requires the land for any of the following purposes :—

Landlord's right to terminate tenancy for personal cultivation and non-agricultural purpose.

(a) for cultivating personally, or

(b) for any non-agricultural purpose.

(2) The notice required to be given under sub-section (1) shall be in writing, shall state the purpose for which the landlord requires the land and shall be served on the tenant on or before the 31st day of December 1956. A copy of such notice shall, at the same time, be sent to the Mamlatdar. An application for possession under section 29 shall be made to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March 1957.

(3) Where a landlord is a minor, or a widow, or a person subject to mental or physical disability <sup>4</sup>* * * * then such notice may be given <sup>5</sup>[ and an application for possession under section 29 may be made,]— such person in the joint family has been separated by metes and bounds and the Mamlatdar on inquiry, is satisfied that the share of such person in the land is separated having regard to the area, assessment, classification and value of the land, in the same proportion as the share of that person in the entire joint family property, and not in a large proportion.]

Conditions of termination of tenancy.

31A. The right of a landlord to terminate a tenancy for cultivating the land personally under section 31 shall be subject to the following conditions :—

(a) If the landlord at the date on which the notice is given and on the date on which it expires has no other land of his own or has not been cultivating personally any other land, he shall be entitled to take possession of the land leased to the extent of a ceiling area.

(b) If the land cultivated by him personally is less than a ceiling area, the landlord shall be entitled to take possession of so much area of the land leased as will be sufficient to make up the area in his possession to the extent of a ceiling area.

(c) The income by the cultivation of the land of which he is entitled to take possession is the principal source of income for his maintenance.

<sup>1</sup>[(d) The land leased stands in the record of rights or in any public record or similar revenue record on the 1st day of January 1952 and thereafter during the period between the said date and the appointed day in the name of the landlord himself, or of any of his ancestors <sup>2</sup>[but not of any person from whom title is derived, whether by assignment or Court sale or otherwise], or if the landlord is a member of a joint family, in the name of a member of such family.]

(e) If more tenancies than one are held under the same landlord, then the landlord shall be competent to terminate only the tenancy or tenancies which are the shortest in point of duration.

31B. In no case a tenancy shall be terminated under section 31—

(1) in such manner as will result in leaving with a tenant, after termination, less than half the area of the land leased to him, or

(2) in such a manner as will result in a contravention of the provisions of the *Bombay Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1947, or in making any part of the land leased a fragment within the meaning of that Act, or

(3) if the tenant has become a member of a co-operative farming society and so long as he continues to be such member.

No termination of tenancy in contravention of Bom. LXII of 1947 or if tenant is member of co-operative farming society.

31BB. [Certain provisions of Act not to apply to landlords on ceasing to be serving members of armed forces.] Deleted by Mah. 39 of 1964, s. 3.

31C. The tenancy of any land left with the tenant after the termination of the tenancy under section 31 shall not at any time afterwards be liable to termination again on the ground that the landlord bona fide requires that land for personal cultivation.

Landlord not entitled to terminate tenancy for personal cultivation of land left with tenant.

31D. If, in consequence of the termination of the tenancy under section 31, any part of the land leased is left with the tenant, the rent shall be apportioned in the prescribed manner in proportion to the area of the land left with the tenant.

(II) Purchase of land by tenants

32. <sup>1</sup>[(1)] On the first day of April 1957 (hereinafter referred to as “the tillers’ day”) every tenant shall, <sup>2</sup>[subject to the other provisions of this section and the provisions of] the next succeeding section, be deemed to have purchased from his landlord, free of all encumbrances subsisting thereon on the said day, the land held by him as tenant, if—

Tenants deemed to have purchased land on tillers day.

(a) such tenant is a permanent tenant thereof and cultivates land personally ;

(b) such tenant is not a permanent tenant but cultivates the land leased personally ; and

(i) the landlord has not given notice of termination of his tenancy under section 31 ; or

(ii) notice has been given under section 31, but the landlord has not applied to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March 1957 under section 29 for obtaining possession of the land ; <sup>3</sup>[or]

<sup>4</sup>[(iii) the landlord has not terminated his tenancy on any of the grounds specified in section 14, or has so terminated the tenancy but has not applied to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March 1957 under section 29 for obtaining possession of the lands :]

(i) in the case of a permanent tenant who is cultivating the land personally the purchase price shall be the aggregate of the following amounts, that is to say,—

(a) an amount equal to six times the rent of the land;

(b) the amount of the arrears of rent, if any, lawfully due on the tillers' day or the postponed date;

(c) the amounts, if any, paid by or recovered from the landlord as land revenue and cesses referred to in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10A, in the event of the failure on the part of the tenant to pay the same;

(ii) in the case of other tenants, the purchase price shall be the aggregate of the following amounts, that is to say,—

(a) such amount as the Tribunal may determine not being less than 20 times the assessment and not more than 200 times the assessment;

(b) the value of any structures, wells, and embankments constructed and other permanent fixtures made and trees planted by the landlord on the land;

(c) the amount of the arrears of rent, if any, lawfully due on the tillers' day or the postponed date;

(d) the amounts, if any, paid by or recovered from the landlord as land revenue and other cesses referred to in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10A, in the event of the failure on the part of the tenant to pay the same].

land.

(2) On receipt of the application, the Mamlatdar after giving notice to the landlords concerned and after making an inquiry may sanction the exchange on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed and may issue certificates in the prescribed form to the applicants.

(3) The certificates so issued shall be conclusive of the fact of such exchange against the landlords and all persons interested in the lands exchanged.

(4) Each of the two <sup>1</sup>* * * tenants shall on exchange hold the land on the same terms and conditions on which it was held by the original tenant immediately before the exchange subject to such modifications as may have been sanctioned by the Mamlatdar.

and purchase by tenants, of lands to which section 88C applies.*

33A. For the purposes of sections 33B and 33C,—

Definitions.

(i) “certificated landlord” means a person who holds a certificate issued to him under sub-section (4) of section 88C <sup>4</sup>[but does not include a landlord within the meaning of Chapter III-AA holding a similar certificate]; and

(ii) “excluded tenant” means a tenant of land to which sections 32 to 32R (both inclusive) do not apply by virtue of sub-section (1) of section 88C.

33B. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 31, 31A or 31B a certificated landlord may, after giving notice and making an application for possession as provided in sub-section (3), terminate the tenancy of an excluded tenant, if the landlord bona-fide requires such land for cultivating it personally.

Special right of certificated landlord to terminate tenancy for personal cultivation.

(2) The notice may be given and an application made by a certificated landlord under sub-section (3), notwithstanding that in respect of the same tenancy an application of the landlord made in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 31—

(i) is pending before the Mamlatdar or in appeal before the Collector, or in revision before the Maharashtra Revenue Tribunal, on the date of the commencement of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Amendment) Act, 1960 (hereinafter referred to in this section as 'the commencement date'), or Mah.

IX of 1961.

(ii) has been rejected by any authority before the commencement date.

(3) The notice required to be given under sub-section (1) shall be in writing, and shall be served on the tenant—

(a) before the first day of January 1962, but

(b) if an application under section 88C is undisposed of and pending on that date then within three months of his receiving such certificate, and a copy of the notice shall, at the same time, be sent to the Mamlatdar. An application for possession of the land shall be made thereafter under section 29 to the Mamlatdar before the 1st day of April 1962, in the case falling under (a) and within three months of his receiving the certificate in the case falling under (b).

(4) Where the certificated landlord belongs to any of the following categories, namely :—

(a) a minor,

(b) a widow,

1* * * * *

(d) a person subject to any physical or mental disability, then, if he has not given notice and not made an application as required by sub-sections (1) and (3), such notice may be given and such application made —

(A) by the landlord within one year from the date on which he,—

(i) in the case of category (a), attains majority ;

2* * * * *

(iii) in the case of category (d), ceases to be subject to such physical or mental disability; and

(B) In the case of a widow, by the successor-in-title within one year from the date on which widow's interest in the land ceases :

Provided that, where a person belonging to any category is a member of a joint family, the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply if any one member of the joint family does not belong to any of the categories mentioned in this sub-section, unless the share of such person in the joint family has been separated by metes and bounds before the 31st day of March 1958 and the Mamlatdar on inquiry is satisfied that the share of such person in the land is separated (having regard to the area, assessment, classification and value of the land) in the same proportion as the share of that person in the entire joint family property, and not in a larger proportion.

(5) The right of a certificated landlord to terminate a tenancy under this section shall be subject to the following conditions, that is to say,—

(a) If any land is left over from a tenancy in respect of which other land has already been resumed by the landlord or his predecessor-in-title, on the ground that other land was required for cultivating it personally under section 31 (or under any earlier law relating to tenancies then in force), the tenancy in respect of any land so left over shall not be liable to be terminated under sub-section (1).

(b) The landlord shall be entitled to terminate a tenancy and take possession of the land leased but to the extent only of so much thereof as would result in both the landlord and the tenant holding thereafter in the total an equal area for personal cultivation—the area resumed or the area left with the tenant being a fragment, notwithstanding, and notwithstanding anything contained in section 31 of the *Bombay Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1947.

Bom.
LXII of 1947.

(c) The land leased stands in the Record of Rights (or in any public record or similar revenue record) on the 1st day of January 1952 and thereafter until the commencement date in the name of the landlord himself, or of any of his ancestors (but not of any person from whom title is derived by assignment or Court sale or otherwise), or if the landlord is a member of a joint family, in the name of a member of such family.

(6) The tenancy of any land left with the tenant after the termination of the tenancy under this section shall not at any time afterwards be liable to termination again on the ground that the landlord bona-fide requires that land for personal cultivation.

(7) If, in consequence of the termination of the tenancy under this section, any part of the land leased is left with the tenant, the rent shall be apportioned in the prescribed manner in proportion to the area of the land so left with the tenant.

* Now, the short title of the Act has been amended as “ the Maharashtra Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act ” (LXII of 1947), by Mah. 24 of 2012, sections 2 and 3, schedule, entry 29, w.e.f. 1st May 1960.

Tenants of lands mentioned in section 88C to be deemed to have purchased land and other incidental provisions.

33C. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 88C, every excluded tenant holding land from a certificated landlord shall, except as otherwise provided in sub-section (3), be deemed to have purchased from the landlord, on the first day of April 1962, free from all encumbrances subsisting thereon on the said day, the land held by him as tenant, if such land is cultivated by him personally, and

(i) the landlord has not given notice of termination of tenancy in accordance with sub-section (3) of section 33B, or

(ii) the landlord has given such notice, but has not made an application thereafter under section 29 for possession as required by the said sub-section (3), or

(iii) the landlord, not belonging to any of the categories specified in sub-section (4) of section 33B, has not terminated the tenancy on any of the grounds specified in section 14, or has so terminated the tenancy but has not applied to the Mamlatdar on or before the 31st day of March 1962 under section 29 for possession of the land :

Provided that, where the landlord has made such application for possession, the tenant shall, on the date on which the application is finally decided, be deemed to have purchased the land which he is entitled to retain in possession after such decision.

(2) (a) Where a tenant, on account of his eviction from the land by the landlord before the 1st day of April 1962, is not in possession of the land on the said date, but has made or makes an application for possession of the land under sub-section (1) of section 29 within the period specified in that sub-section, then if the application is allowed by the Mamlatdar, or as the case may be, in appeal by the Collector or in revision by the Maharashtra Revenue Tribunal, he shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date on which the final order allowing the application is passed.

(b) Where such tenant has not made an application for possession within the period specified in sub-section (1) of section 29 or any application made by him is finally rejected under this Act, and the land is held by any other person as tenant on the expiry of the said period or on the date of the final rejection of the application, such other person shall be deemed to have purchased the land on the date of the expiry of the said period or as the case may be, on the date of the final rejection of the application.

(3) Where the certificated landlord, belonging to any of the categories specified in sub-section (4) of section 33B, has not given notice of termination of the tenancy of an excluded tenant in accordance with sub-section (3) of that section, or has given such notice but has not made an application thereafter under section 29 for possession as required by the said sub-section (3), such excluded tenant shall have the right to purchase the land held by him as tenant within one year from the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (4) of section 33B :

Provided that where the tenancy is terminated and application for possession is made in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 33B, the tenant shall, within one year from the date on which such application is finally decided be entitled to purchase the land which he is entitled to retain in possession after such decision.

(4) An excluded tenant desirous of exercising the right conferred on him under sub-section (3) shall accordingly inform the landlord and the Tribunal in the prescribed manner within the period of one year during which he is entitled to exercise such right under sub-section (3).

(5) The provisions of sections 32 to 32R (both inclusive) shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to the purchase of land by an excluded tenant under this section.]

34. [Maximum land that can be held by a person.] Deleted by Mah. 27 of 1961, s. 48, Second Schedule.

<sup>2</sup>34A. Every person holding land in the charge of more than one village Accountant whether as owner or tenant or partly as owner and partly as tenant on the 31st day of March 1957, shall within the prescribed period furnish in the prescribed manner true particulars of all the land so held by him to each of the Mamlatdars within whose jurisdiction any piece of such land is situate].

Holders of land to furnish particulars of land to Mamlatdar.

35. [Provision of section 34 to apply to land, coming into possession of person on gift, etc.] Deleted by Mah. 27 of 1961, s. 48, Second Schedule.

<sup>3</sup>35A. (1) Where the Mamlatdar, suo motu or on an application made to him in this behalf, has reason to believe that the total area of land held by any person, whether as owner or tenant or partly as owner and partly as tenant, has exceeded the ceiling area or the area permitted to be held under sub-section (2) of section 34, whether on account of—

Determination of excess land cases.

(i) the restoration of any land to the possession of such person under sub-section (2) of section 84B, or

(ii) the retention of any land with such person by virtue of the transfer of the land to such person not being declared to be invalid by the Mamlatdar under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 84B or the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 84C, or by virtue of an order under the proviso to sub-section (4) of section 84C, he shall, after holding an enquiry and after giving an opportunity to such person of being heard, determine whether the total area of land held by such person exceed the ceiling area or the area permitted under sub-section (2) of section 34 and, if so, the extent and particulars of such excess land.

(2) The excess land determined under sub-section (1) shall be at the disposal of the Tribunal under section 32P]

Fragment in excess of economic holding or ceiling area may be permitted to remain with holder.

36. If, as a result of any redistribution or transfer of land under the provisions of this Act, any area in excess of the economic holding or ceiling area which a person is entitled to hold under this Act is left over as a fragment, the Collector may, <sup>1*</sup> * * * * * permit such fragment to remain with either of the holders of the land, having regard to the efficient use thereof for agricultural purposes.

Landlord to restore possession if he fails to cultivate within one year.

37. (1) If after the landlord takes possession of the land after the termination of the tenancy <sup>2</sup>[under section 31], <sup>3</sup>[33B or section 34 of this Act as it stood immediately before the commencement of the Amending Act, 1956] he fails to use it for any of the purposes specified in the notice given under <sup>4</sup>[section 31], <sup>3</sup>[33 B or section 34 of this Act as it stood immediately before the commencement of the Amending Act, 1956] within one year from the date on which he took possession or ceases to use it at any time for any of the aforesaid purposes within twelve years from the date on which he took such possession, the landlord shall forthwith restore possession of the land to the tenant whose tenancy was terminated by him, unless he has obtained from the tenant his refusal in writing to accept the tenancy on the same terms and conditions or has offered in writing to give possession of the land to the tenant on the same terms and conditions and the tenant has failed to accept the offer within three months of the receipt thereof.

(2) After the tenant has recovered possession under sub-section (1) he shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, hold such land on the same terms and conditions on which he held it at the time his tenancy was terminated.

(3) If the landlord has failed to restore possession of the land to the tenant as provided in sub-section (1) he shall be liable to pay such compensation to the tenant as may be determined by the Mamlatdar for the loss suffered by the tenant on account of eviction.

<sup>5</sup>[(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a landlord who becomes a serving member of the armed forces ; and on that account, fails to use the land, or ceases to use it, for any of the purposes specified in the notice referred to in sub-section (1) and within the period specified in that sub-section.]

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR TERMINATION OF TENANCY BY LANDLORDS WHO ARE OR HAVE BEEN SERVING MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES ; AND FOR PURCHASE OF THEIR LANDS BY TENANTS.

43-1A. In this Chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, Definition.
“landlord” means a landlord (including a certificated landlord within the meaning of section 33A) who is, or has ceased to be, a serving member of the armed forces ; and in relation to the land of a landlord who is dead, includes his widow, son, son’s son, unmarried daughter, father or mother.

43-1B. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing Right of landlord to terminate the tenancy.
provisions of this Act, but subject to the provisions of this section, it shall be lawful to a landlord at any time after the commencement of the Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Laws (Amendment) Act, 1964, to terminate the tenancy of any land and obtain possession thereof, but—
*Mah.
of 1964.*

(a) of so much of such land as will be sufficient to make up the total land in his actual possession equal to the ceiling area ; and

(b) where the landlord is a member of joint family, only to the extent of his share in the land (not exceeding the ceiling area) held by the joint family, provided that, the Mamlatdar on inquiry is satisfied that such share has (regard being had to the area, assessment, classification and value of land) been separated by metes and bounds in the same proportion as his share in the entire joint family property and not in a larger proportion.

(2) No tenancy of any land shall be terminated under sub-section (1), unless a notice in writing is given to the tenant, and an application for possession under sub-section (3-A) of section 29 is made to the Collector :

Provided that in the case of a landlord who has ceased to be a serving member of the armed forces, such notice shall be given and application made within two years from the date of such cesser; and if he dies before the expiry of these two years without giving such notice or making such application, then within two years from the date of his death.

(3) Nothing in this Chapter shall—

(a) apply to a tenancy of land created (after obtaining possession thereof under the provisions of this Chapter) by a landlord who has ceased to be a serving member of the armed forces ; but the provisions of section 32O shall apply to such tenancy as they apply in relation to a tenancy created after the tiller’s day ;

(b) entitle a landlord who has ceased to be a serving member of the armed forces (as a result of his being duly dismissed or discharged after a court martial or on account of bad character or as a result of desertion) or who has not been attested, to terminate the tenancy of his land under this section.

(4) Nothing in the *Bombay Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1947, shall affect the termination of any tenancy under this Chapter. Bom. LXII of 1947.

Transfer of pending proceedings to Collector and State Government.

43-1C. All proceedings for recovery or restoration of possession of land filed under section 31 or 33B by a landlord pending immediately before the commencement of the Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Laws (Amendment) Act, 1964, before a Mamlatdar shall (subject to any rules made as respects such transfer or any matter incidental thereto) on such commencement, stand transferred to the Collector, and all such proceedings pending in appeal before the Collector or in revision before the Maharashtra Revenue Tribunal shall be deemed to have been instituted for restoration of the land before the Collector under section 43-1B, or as the case may be, pending in revision before the State Government under section 73A and be disposed of accordingly. Mah. XXXIX of 1964.

Right of tenant to purchase land from landlord.

43-1D. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Act, or any law, agreement, custom or usage to the contrary, but subject to the provisions of this section, a tenant holding land from a landlord shall, subject to the provisions of section 32A, be entitled to purchase from the landlord—

(a) where the landlord fails to make an application as required by section 43-1B, the entire land so held by him, and

(b) in any other case, such part of the land held by the tenant as is left with him after the termination of tenancy under section 43-1B.

(2) The right to purchase land under sub-section (1) shall be exercised within one year from the date on which possession of the land is obtained by the landlord in pursuance of the provisions of section 43-1B; or as the case may be, after the expiry of the period referred to in the proviso to the sub-section (2) of section 43-1B; and intimation of exercise of the right shall be sent to the landlord and the Tribunal in the prescribed manner within the period aforesaid.

(3) The provisions of sections 32 to 32E (both inclusive) and sections 32G to 32N (both inclusive) and section 32P, 32Q and 32R shall apply to the purchase of the land by a tenant under sub-section (1) as those provisions apply in relation to the purchase of land under section 32.

Saving.

43-1E. Nothing in this Chapter shall apply in relation to land, which before the commencement of the Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Laws (Amendment) Act, 1964, is purchased by any tenant under the provisions of Chapter III.] Mah. XXXIX of 1964.

* The short title of the Act has been amended as "The Maharashtra Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act" By Mah. 24 of 2012, sec. 2 and 3, Schedule, Entry 29, w.e.f. 1st May 1960.

INDUSTRIAL OR COMMERCIAL UNDERTAKINGS AND BY CERTAIN PERSONS FOR THE CULTIVATION OF SUGARCANE AND OTHER NOTIFIED AGRICULTURAL PRODUCE.

43A. (1) The provisions of sections 4B, 8, 9, 9A, 9B, 9C, 10, 10A, 14, 16, 17, 17A, 17B, 18, 27, 31 to 31D (both inclusive), 32 to 32R, (both inclusive) <sup>2</sup>[33A, 33B, 33C] <sup>3</sup>* * * 43, 63, 63A, 64 and 65, shall not apply to—

Some of the provisions not to apply to leases of land obtained by industrial or commercial undertakings, certain co-operative societies or for cultivations of sugarcane or fruits or flowers.

(a) <sup>4</sup>[land leased to or held by] any industrial or commercial undertaking (other than a Co-operative Society) which in the opinion of the State Government bona fide carried on any industrial or commercial operations and which is approved by the State Government ;

(b) leases of land granted to any bodies or persons other than those mentioned in clause (a) for the cultivation of sugarcane or the growing of fruits or flowers or for the breeding of livestock;

(c) to lands held or leased by such co-operative societies as are approved in the prescribed manner by the State Government which have for their objects the improvement of the economic and social conditions of peasants or ensuring the full and efficient use of land for agriculture and allied pursuits.

(2) The State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette in this behalf direct that the provisions of the said sections shall not apply to a lease of land obtained by any person for growing any other class of agricultural produce to which it is satisfied that it will not be expedient in the public interest to apply the said provisions. Before the issue of such notification, the State Government shall direct an inquiry to be made by an officer authorised in this behalf by the State Government and shall give all persons who are likely to be affected by such notification, an opportunity to submit their objections.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), it shall be lawful for the State Government to direct, by notification in the Official Gazette that the leases <sup>5</sup>[or lands, as the case may be,] to which the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) apply, shall be subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification, in respect of—

(a) the duration of the lease ;

(d) any other matter referred to in sections mentioned in sub-section (1).

Reasonable rent of land to which section 43A applies.

43B. Notwithstanding any agreement, usage, decree or order of a court or any other authority, in the case of any land to which section 43A applies, the rent payable shall be reasonable rent as determined under the following clauses :—

(1) A landlord or a tenant of such land may make an application in writing to the Mamlatdar for the determination of the reasonable rent in respect of such land.

(2) On receipt of such application, the Mamlatdar shall give notice thereof to the other party to the lease and after holding an inquiry shall determine the reasonable rent.

(3) In determining the reasonable rent regard shall be had to the following factors :—

(a) profits of agriculture of similar lands in the locality,

(b) prices in the locality of the particular crop for the growing of which the land is leased,

(c) the improvements made in the land by the lessee or the landlord,

(d) the assessment payable in respect of land,

(e) the profits realised by the lessee on account of the lease of the land,

(f) profits earned by an industrial or commercial undertaking by the manufacture or sale of articles made out of the produce of the land leased,

(g) such other factors as may be prescribed.

(4) The reasonable rent determined by the Mamlatdar under clause (2) shall, with effect from <sup>1</sup>[the date specified by the Mamlatdar] in that behalf, be deemed to be the rent fixed under the lease in lieu of the rent, if any, agreed between the parties.

CHAPTER IV

MANAGEMENT OF ESTATES HELD BY LAND HOLDERS

Powers to assume management of landholder's estate.

44. Notwithstanding any law for the time being in force, usage or custom or the terms of contract or grant, when the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government is satisfied that on account of the neglect of a landholder or disputes between him and his tenants, the cultivation of his estate has seriously suffered, or when it appear to the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government that it is necessary <sup>2</sup>[for the said purpose or for the purpose of] ensuring the full and efficient use of land for agriculture to assume management of any landholder's estate, notification announcing such intention shall be published in the Official Gazette, and the Collector shall cause notice of the substance of such notification to be given at convenient places in the locality where the estate is situated. Such notification shall be conclusive.

Vesting of estate in management.

45. <sup>3</sup>[(1)] On the publication of the notification under section 44, the estate in respect of which the notification has been published shall, so long as the management continues, vest in the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government. Such management shall be deemed to commence from the date on which the notification is published and the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government shall appoint a Manager to be in charge of such estate.

<sup>4</sup>[(2)] Notwithstanding the vesting of the estate in the State Government under sub-section (1), the tenant holding the lands on lease comprised in the estate shall, save as otherwise provided in this Chapter, continue to have the same right and shall be subject to the same obligations, as they have or are subject under the preceding Chapter in respect of the lands held by them on lease.]

declaration of mangement.

46. On the publication of the notification under section 44, the following consequences shall ensue :—

(1) All proceedings then pending in any Civil Court in respect to the debts and liabilities enforceable against the estate shall be stayed; and the operation of all processes, executions and attachments then in force for or in respect of such debts and liabilities shall be suspended ;

(2) So long as the management continues no fresh proceedings, processes, executions or attachments shall be instituted in or issued, enforced or executed by any Civil Court in respect of such debts and liabilities ;

<sup>2</sup> These words were substituted for the words " for the purpose of improving the economic and social conditions of peasants or " by Bom. 33 of 1952, s. 11.

<sup>3</sup> Section 45 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of the said section by Bom. 33 of 1952, s. 12.

<sup>4</sup> Sub-section (2) was added by Bom. 33 of 1952, s. 12.

(3) So long as the management continues the holder of the estate shall be incompetent—

(a) to enter into any contract involving the estate in pecuniary liability,

(b) to mortgage, charge, lease or alienate the property under management or any part thereof, or

(c) to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits arising or accruing therefrom :

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to preclude the Manager from letting and the holder from taking the whole or a part of such estate on such terms consistent with this Act as may be agreed upon between the parties ;

(4) So long as the management continues, no person other than the Manager shall be competent to mortgage, charge, lease or alienate such estate or any part thereof.

47. (1) The Manager shall during the management of the estate have all the powers which the holder thereof might as such have exercised and shall receive and recover all rents and profits due in respect of the property under management. Manager's powers.

(2) For the purposes of recovering such rents and profits the Manager shall have, in addition to any powers possessed by the holder, all the powers possessed by the Collector under the law for the time being in force for securing and recovering land revenue due to Government.

48. (1) From the sums received or recovered under section 47, the Manager shall pay,— Manager to pay costs of management, etc.

(i) the costs of management including the costs of necessary repairs ;

(ii) the Government revenue and all debts and liabilities for the time being due or incurred to the <sup>1</sup>[Government] in respect of the property under management;

(iii) the rent, if any, due to any superior holder in respect of the said estate ;

(iv) such periodical allowance as the Collector may from time to time fix for the maintenance and other expenses of the holder and of such members of his family as the Collector directs ;

(v) the costs of such improvements of the said estate as he thinks necessary and as approved by the Collector.

(2) The residue shall be retained by the Manager for the liquidation in the manner hereinafter provided, of the debts and liabilities other than those mentioned in sub-section (1) and also for the repayment, either before or after the liquidation of such debts and liabilities, of any loan received from Government by the Manager under this Act. The balance, if any, shall be paid to the holder.

Notice to claimants.

49. On the publication of the order of management, the Manager shall publish in the Official Gazette, a notice calling upon all persons having claims against the estate under management to notify the same in writing to such Manager within two months from the date of the publication. He shall also cause copies of such notice to be exhibited at such several places as he thinks fit.

Claim to contain full particulars.

50. (1) Every such claimant shall, along with his claim, present full particulars thereof.

(2) Every document on which the claimant founds his claim, or on which he relies in support thereof, shall be delivered to the Manager along with the claim.

(3) If the document be an entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book to the Manager, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The Manager shall mark the book for the purpose of identification, and after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall return the book to the claimant.

(4) If any document in possession or under the control of the claimant is not delivered or produced by him to the Manager along with the claim, the manager may refuse to receive such document in evidence on the claimant's behalf at the investigation of the case.

Claim not duly notified to be barred.

51. Every such claim other than the claim of the <sup>1</sup>[Government] not informed to the Manager within the time and in the manner required by such notice shall, except as provided hereinafter, be deemed for all purposes and on all occasions, whether during the continuance of the management or afterwards, to have been duly discharged :

Provided that when proof is made to the Manager that the claimant was unable to comply with the provisions of section 49, the Manager may receive such claim within the further period of two months from the expiration of the original period of two months.

Determination of debts and liabilities.

52. The Manager shall inquire into the history and merits of every claim received under preceding section and shall in accordance with the rules to be made under this Act determine the amount of the debts and liabilities, if any, justly due to the several claimants.

Power to rank debts and fix interest.

53. If such amount cannot be paid at once, the Manager shall then proceed to rank such debts and liabilities according to the order in which they shall be paid, and to fix the interest, if any, to be paid thereon, respectively from the date of the final decision thereon, to the date of the payment and discharge thereof.

Scheme for liquidation.

54. When the total amount of the debts and liabilities including those due and incurred to the <sup>1</sup>[Government] has been finally determined, the Manager shall prepare and submit to the Collector a schedule of such debts and liabilities, and a scheme (hereinafter called the liquidation scheme) showing the mode in which it is proposed to pay and discharge the same, whether from the income of the property under management, or with the aid of funds raised under the powers hereinafter conferred, or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other.

55. Every liquidation scheme shall further provide for the continuance of the payments to be made by the Manager and for the repayment of money, if any, which, the Manager proposes to borrow from Government under this Act and may provide for the improvement of the estate under management either from the said income or with the aid of the funds raised as aforesaid or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other. Provisions of scheme.

56. When the Collector sanctions the liquidation scheme, he shall notify the fact of such sanction at such place and in such manner as the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government may from time to time by rule direct; and thereupon— Effects of sanctioning scheme.

(i) all proceedings, processes, executions and attachments stayed or suspended under section 46 shall be forever barred ;

(ii) every debt or liability due or owing to any person which was provable before the Manager shall be extinguished, and such person shall be entitled to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount, if any, finally awarded to him under the preceding sections in respect of such debt or liability.

57. (1) If the estate under management or any part thereof be in the possession of a mortgagee or conditional vendee, the Manager, at any time after the liquidation scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, may by an order in writing require such incumbrancer to deliver up possession of the same to him at the end of the then current revenue year. Power to remove mortgagee in possession.

(2) If such incumbrancer refuses or neglects to obey such order, the Manager may, without resorting to a Civil Court, enter upon the property and summarily evict therefrom the said incumbrancer or any other person obstructing or resisting on his behalf.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be held to affect the right of any incumbrancer to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount, if any, awarded to him under this Act.

58. Subject to the rules made under this Act, the Manager after the liquidation scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, shall have power to sell or grant on lease all or any part of the estate under the management: Power to sell or lease.

Provided that the estate or any part thereof shall not be sold or leased for a period exceeding ten years without the previous permission of the Collector :

Provided further that the Collector shall not give such permission unless he is satisfied that such sale or lease is necessary for the benefit of the estate <sup>1</sup>[or unless such sale is in favour of <sup>2</sup>[a tenant under section 32, 32F, 32I or 32O.]] The decision of the Collector shall be final.

Manager's receipt a discharge. 59. The Manager's receipt for any moneys, rents or profits raised or received by him under this Act shall discharge the person paying the same therefrom or from being concerned to see to the application thereof.

Holder of estate dying. 60. (1) If the holder of the estate dies after the publication of the order of management, the management shall continue and proceed in all respects as if the holder were still living.

(2) Any person succeeding to the whole or any part of the estate under management shall, while such management continues, be subject in respect of such estate to the disabilities imposed under this Act.

(3) No Civil Court shall, during the continuance of the management, issue any attachment or other process against any portion of the estate under management for or in respect of any debt or liability incurred by any such person either before or after his said succession.

Termination of management. 61. The <sup>3</sup>[State] Government, when it is of opinion that it is not necessary to continue the management of the estate, by order published in the Official Gazette, direct that the said management shall be terminated. On the termination of the said management, the estate shall be delivered into the possession of the holder, or, if he is dead, of any person entitled to the said estate together with any balances which may be due to the credit of the said holder. All acts done or purporting to be done by the Manager during the continuance of the management of the estate shall be binding on the holder or to any person to whom the possession of the estate has been delivered.

Manager deemed to be public servant. 62. The Manager appointed under this Chapter shall be deemed to be a public servant under section 21 of the Indian Penal Code. XLV of 1860.

(b) the value of any structures, wells and embankments, constructed, permanent fixtures made and trees planted on the land.

(2) Where under the provisions of this Act any land is sold or purchased by mutual agreement, such agreement shall be registered before the Mamlatdar, and the price of the land shall, subject to the limits specified in sub-section (1), be such as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties. In the case of disagreement between the parties, the price shall be determined by the Tribunal having regard to the factors mentioned in this section.

(3) Where in the case of a sale or purchase of any land under this Act, the Tribunal or the Mamlatdar has to fix the price of such land under this Act, the Tribunal or the Mamlatdar, as the case may be, shall, subject to the quantum specified in sub-section (1), fix the price having regard to the following factors, namely:—

- (a) the rental values of lands used for similar purposes in the locality;
- (b) the structures and wells constructed and permanent fixtures made and trees planted, on the land by the landlord or tenant ;
- (c) the profits of agriculture of similar lands in the locality ;
- (d) the prices of crops and commodities in the locality ;
- (e) the improvements made in the land by the landlord or the tenant ;
- (f) the assessment payable in respect of the land ; and
- (g) such other factors as may be prescribed.]

<sup>1</sup>[Explanation.—For the purpose of this section the expression ‘assessment’ shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 8.]

<sup>2</sup>[64. (1) Where a landlord intends to sell any land, he shall apply to the Tribunal for determining the reasonable price thereof. The Tribunal shall thereupon determine the reasonable price of the land in accordance with the provisions of section 63A. The Tribunal shall also direct that the price shall be payable either in lump sum or in annual instalments not exceeding six carrying simple interest at 4½ per cent. per annum :

Sale of agricultural land to particular person.

Provided that, in the case of sale of the land in favour of a permanent tenant when he is in possession thereof, the price shall be at six times the annual rent.

(2) After the Tribunal has determined the reasonable price, the landlord shall simultaneously in the prescribed manner make an offer—

- (a) in the case of agricultural land,—
  - (i) to the tenant in actual possession thereof, notwithstanding the fact that such land is a fragment; and
  - (ii) to all persons and bodies mentioned in the priority list ;

(b) in the case of a dwelling house, or a site of a dwelling house or land appurtenant to such house when such dwelling house, site or land is not used or is not necessary to carry on agricultural operations in the adjoining lands—

(i) to the tenant thereof;

(ii) to the person residing in the village who is not in possession of any dwelling house:

Provided that if there are more than one such person the offer shall be made to such person or persons and in such order of priority as the Collector may determine in this behalf having regard to the needs of the following persons, namely:—

(i) an agricultural labourer,

(ii) a artisan,

(iii) a person carrying on an allied pursuit,

(iv) any other person in the village.

(3) The persons to whom such offers are made shall intimate to the landlord within one month from the date of receipt of the offer whether they are willing to purchase the land at the price fixed by the Tribunal.

(4) (a) If only one person intimates to the landlord under sub-section (3) his willingness to accept the offer made to him by the landlord under sub-section (2), the landlord shall call upon such person by a notice in writing in the prescribed form to pay him the amount of the reasonable price determined by the Tribunal or to deposit the same with the Tribunal within one month or such further period as the landlord may consider reasonable from the date of receipt of the notice by such person.

(b) If more than one person intimate to the landlord under sub-section (3) their willingness to accept the offers made to them by the landlord under sub-section (2), the landlord shall call upon by a notice in writing in the prescribed form the person having the highest priority in the order of priority given in sub-section (2) to pay him the amount of the reasonable price determined by the Tribunal or to deposit the same with the Tribunal within one month or such further period as the landlord may consider reasonable from the date of receipt of the notice by such person.

(5) If the person to whom a notice is given by the landlord under sub-section (4) fails to pay the amount of the reasonable price to the landlord or to deposit the same with the Tribunal within the period referred to in sub-section (4) such person shall be deemed to be not willing to purchase the land and the landlord shall call upon in the manner provided in sub-section (4) the person who stands next highest in the order of priority and who has intimated his willingness to the landlord under sub-section (3).

- (6) If any dispute arises under this section regarding—
- (a) the offer made by the landlord under sub-section (2), or
  - (b) the notice given by the landlord under sub-sections (4) or (5), or
  - (c) the payment or deposit of the reasonable price, or
  - (d) the execution of the sale-deed, such dispute shall be decided by the Tribunal.

(7) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section a landlord may after obtaining the previous permission of the Tribunal as provided in the next succeeding clause (b) sell any land notwithstanding the fact that such land is a fragment to the tenant in actual possession thereof at a price mutually agreed upon between him and the tenant subject to the provisions of section 63A.

(b) The landlord shall make an application in writing to the Tribunal for permission to sell the land at such price. On receipt of the application, the Tribunal shall grant the permission if, on holding an inquiry, it is satisfied that the price has been agreed to voluntarily by the tenant.

(8) Any sale made in contravention of this section shall be invalid.

(9) If a tenant refuses or fails to purchase the land or a dwelling house offered to him under this section, and the land or the dwelling house, as the case may be, is sold to any other person under this section, the landlord shall be entitled to evict such tenant and put the purchaser in possession.]

Exemption to sales by or in favour of co-operative societies.

65. (1) If it appears to the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government that for any two consecutive years, any land has remained uncultivated <sup>3</sup>[or the full and efficient use of the land has not been made for the purpose of agriculture, through the default of the holder or any other cause whatsoever not beyond his control] the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government may after making such inquiry as it thinks fit, declare that the management of such land shall be assumed. The declaration so made shall be conclusive.

Assumption of management of lands which remained uncultivated.

(2) On the assumption of the management, such land shall vest in the <sup>2</sup>[State] Government during the continuance of the management and the provisions of Chapter IV shall mutatis mutandis apply to the said land :

<sup>4</sup>[Provided that the Manager may in suitable cases give such land on lease at rent even equal to the amount of its assessment:

Provided further that, if the Management of the land has been assumed under sub-section (1) on account of the default of the tenant, such tenant shall cease to have any right or privilege under Chapter II or III, as the case may be, in respect of such land, with effect from the date on and from which such management has been assumed.]

Acquisition of estate or land under management or interest therein.

66. (1) If at any time it appears to the <sup>1</sup>[ State ] Government that any estate or land, the management of which has been assumed under the provisions of this Act or the interest of any other person in such estate or land should in the public interest, be compulsorily acquired, it shall be lawful for the <sup>1</sup>[State] Government to publish a notification to that effect in the Official Gazette. The notification so published shall be conclusive that the estate, land or interest is needed to be acquired in public interest.

(2) On the publication of the notification, the Collector shall cause publicity to be given to it at convenient places in the locality and also give notices to the holder of the estate, land or interest and to all persons known or believed to be interested therein.

(3) The Collector shall then make an inquiry in the prescribed manner to determine the value of the estate, land or interest which has been acquired. For the said purpose the Collector shall have the same powers as are vested in courts, in respect of the following matters under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in trying a suit :—

(a) proof of facts by affidavits ;

(b) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath ; and

(c) compelling the production of documents.

(4) In determining the value the Collector shall take into consideration—

(a) the assessment payable in respect of the estate or land ;

(b) the profits of agriculture and cultivation of the estate or land and of similar estates and lands in the locality ;

(c) the price of crops and commodities in the locality ;

(d) exemption from assessment and other privileges enjoyed by the holder and other persons interested in respect of the land, estate and interest ;

(e) any other matter which may be prescribed.

(5) After determining the value of the estate, land or interest the Collector shall make an award which shall contain—

(a) the particulars of the estate, land or interest,

(b) the compensation which in his opinion should be allowed for the land,

(c) the apportionment of the compensation among all persons known, or believed to be interested.

(6) Such award shall be filed in the Collector's office and shall, except as hereinafter provided, be final and conclusive evidence as between the Collector and persons interested whether they have respectively appeared before the Collector or not of all the particulars including area and value of the estate, land or interest and the apportionment of compensation.

(7) When the Collector has made an award, the estate, land or interest therein shall vest in <sup>1</sup>[Government] free from all incumbrances.

(ii) if the amount received by the landlord as the price of the land is in excess of the reasonable price determined under section 63A and the transferor as well as the transferee pays to the State Government each a penalty equal to one-tenth of the reasonable price within such period as the Mamlatdar may fix].

(3) On the declaration made by the Mamlatdar under sub-section (2),—

(a) the land shall be deemed to vest in the State Government, free from all encumbrances lawfully subsisting thereon on the date of such vesting, and shall be disposed of in the manner provided in sub-section (4) ; the encumbrances shall be paid out of the occupancy price in the manner provided in section 32Q for the payment of encumbrances out of the purchase price of the sale of land but the right of the holder of such encumbrances to proceed against the person liable, for the enforcement of his right in any other manner, shall not be affected ;

(b) the amount which was received by the transferor as the price of the land shall be deemed to have been forfeited to the State Government and it shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue; and

(c) the Mamlatdar shall, in accordance with the provisions of section 63A determine the reasonable price of the land.

(4) After determining the reasonable price, the Mamlatdar shall grant the land on new and impartible tenure and on payments of occupancy price equal to the reasonable price determined under sub-section (3) in the prescribed manner in the following order of priority:—

(i) the tenant in actual possession of the land ;

(ii) the persons or bodies in the order given in the priority list:
